Dear Sylvia:

Here is the report that I promised you.

I have not heard from Garrison's office since they sent me the various materials (except for one attempted phone call on their part last Tuesday). I wonder what will happen in their trial.

I do hope that Garrison gives Fensterwald permission to pursue the legal action in D.C. vis-a-vis the autopsy photos and x-rays. Have you heard anything more in that regard?

I enjoyed talking with you last week, and I hope that I shall have a chance to see you in New York some time soon.

With kindest personal regards.

Sincerely,

Cyril
